Daily Thought.

"A character sketch of a man nearly always looks different from his photograph."

A FLAUNTING SHAME.

Judge Reed has taken a step in regard to the Kentucky avenue bad-dy houses, which cannot help becoming popular. The idea of letting these brazen creatures, who ply their horrible traffic in human life and virtue within sight and sound of Broadway, within plain view of the public library and the route traveled by High school girls every day, appear before the commonwealth's attorney once or twice a year, and the police judge every six months and submit to nominal fines, is more obnoxious than permitting them to pursue their course unmolested. The exaction of a nominal fine at stated periods looks too much like levying tribute, a sharing of the profits of sin. Possibly the commonwealth through its court can accomplish something toward ridding the city of the presence of this awful debauchery of womanhood. At least, the court may compel the white slave owners to move their market place back from Broadway and allow decent people to travel the principal street of the city without being compelled to look on the abhorrent spectacle of the lactated houses, and their painted inmates, every day of their lives.

General Trepoff, commandant of the Russian Imperial palace, whose death by natural causes has created greater surprise than would the assassination of the czar, rises to almost heroic proportions compared with the other men, now in authority in Russia. With the exception of Witte, to whose methods those of Trepoff were diametrically opposed, there seems to be no other figure in Russia to command attention. What distinguishes most the tyrant of the capitol is his success. Even the great Witte hampered as he was by bitter court intrigues and the fostered distrust of the peasants, was glad to turn to Trepoff in his dire dilemma.
Cruel he was, and justly hated by the peasant class, but he was master of the situation. He was fearless, too. With his fearlessness, went coolness and discretion. No less than six desperate attempts to end his life, ignominiously failed. While the trembling, vacillating czar, often changed his policy according to the

RATHER SUGGESTIVE.

He: "Cupid is blind." She: "Yes, so I have heard. And the conversation of some lovesick people makes me wish that he were also deaf and dumb."

MUST GIVE BONDS.

In Big Amounts to Canal Commission to Insure all Coolies Deported

Washington, Sept. 18.—Chinese laborers, taken to Panama for work on the canal will be required to be deported at the conclusion of their service. To insure their deportation the Panama government will require the contractors who furnish the Chinese laborers to give a bond of $50,000 for the first 2,500 Chinese and $20 each for laborers in any number in excess of 2,500.

AID IS SENT 140 SHIPWRECKED

British Cruiser Goes to Assistance of Newfoundland Fishermen.

St. John's, N. F., Sept. 18.—The cruiser Fiona left today for Belle Island with provisions and other supplies for the fishermen wrecked in the recent gale. In all eleven fishing boats, returning from Labrador with the season's catch were driven ashore, and the 140 men, women and children aboard barely escaped with their lives. The boats and cargoes were lost.

Pulajanes Broken Up.

Manila, Sept. 18.—Reports received here from expeditions sent into the interior of the island of Lyte, in pursuit of the Pulajanes, state that as a result of recent attacks by troops, the Pulajanes have broken up into small parties. A large band near Lopaz has been dispersed.

Opens Fight in Missouri.

Hannibal, Mo., Sept. 18.—Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, in an address here today formally opened the Republican campaign in this state. Shaw dwelt at length upon the tariff question and outlined the stand taken by the Republican party.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT
Every dose makes you feel better. Lax-Fos keeps your whole insides right. Sold on the money-back plan everywhere. Price 50 cents.

While Americans take great pride and pleasure in being called "a strenuous people," it is perhaps not generally appreciated that a great many injure themselves physically—wreck nervous systems, invite premature wrinkles, gray hairs and infirmities by the hurry, worry way in which they live, neglecting in many instances proper care of the body and letting the real pleasures of life escape as a forfeit. Unrestrained strenuousness means neurasthenia ultimately.

Neurasthenia is nerve-exhaustion and that means vitality of the body to carry on vital functioning.
Nerve centers lag; debility ensues; listlessness and fatigue reign. Pain may be felt in the back; fullness or pressure at the top of the head; sleep is broken and without refreshment; digestion notably is weak and loss of appetite, constipation and distress after eating are the rule. The headache of neurasthenia is like a band around the head; ordinarily is worse in the morning and better towards the end of day, and is probably the most common of all headaches which come for treatment.

Now, drugs do not help neurasthenia; that is admitted; and physicians have long been accustomed to send their neurasthenics away from the cities to the mountains, seashore, abroad or anywhere to find new scenes and enjoy tranquil reservation. But that is expensive and there is a surer, quicker and better as well as less costly way—Osteo-pathy.

Osteopathy cures neurasthenia, which is but another name for nervousness, by stimulation to the nerves and the circulation.

I can show you to your satisfaction in a very few minutes why osteo-pathy is the same rational cure for ALL diseases of the nerves.

Come to see me at any time between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon and 2 and 5 in the afternoon. Dr. G. B. Froese, 516 Broadway. Phone 1407.

IN THE COURTS

No More Criminal Trials.

The malicious shooting case against Sam Liebel was continued.
The murder charge against Cicero Anderson was by agreement continued. This was on account of the absence of witnesses. Anderson killed John Mix. He will make a motion for bail and the hearing will be Friday.

All petit jurors were finally discharged, all the jury cases having been disposed of. The grand jury remains in session until Friday.

presented in police court this morning on the charge of petit larceny. It is alleged that they stole rope from the Ayer & Lord Tie company. The boys had not procured witnesses, and as they are going to fight the case, it was continued and the two recognized to appear tomorrow morning for trial. Ed Vasseur and Arman Williams, alleged to have received stolen ice tickets, were granted a continuance until September 19.

CARNIVAL PEOPLE PAID.

Chief Collins Induces Layton to Pay Half Expense.

Through the efforts of James Collins, chief of police the stranded carnival folks were provided with transportation back home this afternoon. Most of the show people came from Chicago and were brought to Paducah by William Layton. Ever since the ghost failed to walk at the close of the show Saturday night the city hall and police station have been besieged by the stranded folk. Chief Collins placed himself in personal charge of relieving the strangers of their misfortune. After every other effort had failed the big chief corralled William Layton this afternoon and told him that something should be done to help the actors and girls that he had imported to Paducah. Layton furnished half of the expenses. The carnival committee of the Central Labor union readily came up with their half and the show folks were sent on their way.

Poppert, aged 35 years, son of George Poppert, president of the North Mil-

SOME NERVE

DISPLAYED BY OFFICER FROM TENNESSEE.

Kidnaped Negro in Paducah, but Lost His Prisoner on Way to Train Last Night.

A Tiptonville, Tenn., officer came to Paducah and kidnaped a negro under the nose of the police and was taking him to the train when the negro made a break for liberty. The officer started after him, but the negro was a better runner. The prisoner escaped and the officer returned home. He probably will know more about the law when he comes to Paducah again.

Policeman Aaron Hurley tells the story: "The fellow came to Paducah yesterday and kidnaped a big one-eyed negro wanted in Tiptonville for carrying concealed weapons. The officer got the negro and the first I saw of him he was on the car about 4 o'clock going to the depot. At the Cross creek culvert the car stopped and passengers were transferred. The negro made a break and ran. So did the deputy sheriff. The deputy made a good race but was outstripped.

"Catch him, Mr. Marshal, catch him," he cried at me. I replied directing him to do the catching himself.

"In about ten minutes the officer returned. He had his hat in his left hand, his coat over his shoulder, and his pistol in his right hand. He was puffing some. When he got on the train which was just pulling out he cried back to me to send the negro on if I found him. I told him that I would put him on the train and send him if I caught him."

Monument to Washington.

A monument to the memory of George Washington was unveiled at Budapest, Hungary, and thousands of persons attended the exercises, in which the first president of this country was eulogized highly, as were the people of the United States.
